

JUNE 27, 2024

CMSS IN TANZANIA

NEWSLETTER

Written By: David Mulokozi

The Incredible Journey: Completion of Master's in International Maritime Law

Adv. Vedastus Kitureti (IML)

Senior Founder, CMSS

WARMEST REGARDS FROM SENIOR FOUNDER

I extend my deepest gratitude to Almighty God for His blessings and strength throughout this endeavor. Without His grace, this achievement would not have been possible.

Thanks to my colleagues for their constant encouragement and for sharing this journey with me. Your support has been invaluable, and I am grateful for the friendship we have build.

To my professors, your dedication to imparting knowledge, wisdom, and guidance has been instrumental in my success. Thank you for your mentorship which challenging me to reach maritime law expertism.

This milestone is not just mine; it belongs to all of us who have walked this path together. Thank you from the bottom of my heart.

THE LIVING TESTIMONY

Carry the spirit of International Maritime Law Institution (IMLI) forward; made Adv. Kitureti to become the living testimony of safer, fairer maritime world. He is now the bridge that connecting international conventions to the realities of Tanzania's local shores. He has a call to be stewards of the oceans and advocates for the safe, secure, and sustainable use of our maritime space. His dedication to the rule of international maritime law is commendable for every success in his future endeavours.

LEARN NEVER TO QUIT

"Since 90% of global trade occurs by sea, maritime lawyers play a critical role in maintaining world stability, safety, and economic flow. The ocean does not reward the impatient, but it honors those who learn to sail in high winds. International maritime law is a marathon, not a sprint; stay disciplined, master the regulation, and your career will navigate even the roughest current. Comfort is a trap; push past the challenges of maritime law to find the immense impact you can make on global trade and seafarer protection."

-- Adv. Kitureti